

Program

Day 1

Tuesday March 23

8:00 – 9:30 a. m.

Economy and politics in the neighboring countries and lessons for Peru.

Three former ministers of Economy from Ecuador, Colombia and Chile, and a well-known Argentinean economist, will share their vision of the economies and politics of their countries and lessons for Peru.

Speakers: Alfredo Arizaga, Ecuadorian former minister of Economy and Finance, president of Informe Quantum; Mariana Camino, Partner and CEO of ABCECB; Mauricio Cárdenas Santamaría, Colombian former minister of Finance and Public Credit, and José Ramón Valente Vías, Chilean former minister of Economy, president of Econsult and president of Fundación Chile.

Day 2

Wednesday March 24

8:00 – 9:30 a. m.

Challenges for governability: Economic and political analysis of the election manifestos of the most important presidential and congressional candidates.

Presentation provided by APOYO Consultoría with the participation of panelists with experience in the public and private sector.

Panel discussion: Carlos Basombrío, sociologist and political analyst, and Claudia Cooper, president of the board of the Lima Stock Exchange.

Day 3

Thursday March 25

8:00 – 9:30 a. m.

The state of the Peruvian economy until July 2021, challenges for business in a complex economic environment.

The team at APOYO Consultoría will present their vision of the state of the Peruvian economy and will discuss how to resume growth, profitability and sustainability with a panel of leading business executives that operate in Peru.

Panel discussion: Rosario Bazán, CEO of Danper, and Fernando Zavala, CEO of Intercorp.

*The event will take place online. The presentations will be in Spanish and there will be simultaneous translation into English.